

Asahikawa

Located in the center of Hokkaido, Asahikawa is the island's second largest city after Sapporo.

The city is not counted as a leading tourist destination, but its zoo, Asahiyama Zoo, is one of the most famous and popular zoo in Japan.

The local noodle dish, Asahikawa Ramen, is also quite well known.

Sounkyo

Sounkyo is a touristy hot spring resort town in the north of Daisetsuzan National Park.

It is located in a scenic, narrow gorge that is flanked by 100 meter high, forested cliffs.

Sounkyo offers a pleasant village center, onsen baths and two beautiful waterfalls nearby.

It is also a good base for hiking tours into the national park with ropeway access to nearby Mount Kurodake.
