

Sapporo

Sapporo is the capital city of Hokkaido and the fifth largest city in Japan.

Sapporo became world famous in 1972 when the Olympic Winter Games were held there.

Today, the city is well known for its ramen, beer, Odori Park, Tanuki-koji, Susukino and the annual snow festival held in February.

Otaru

Otaru is a small harbor city, about half an hour northwest of Sapporo by train.

Its beautifully preserved canal area and interesting herring mansions make Otaru a pleasant day trip

From Sapporo or a nice stop reroute to or from Niseko or the Shakotan Peninsula.

Today, the city is well known for its Kitaichi Glass Factory, Music box Museum and Sushi Street.
